News of the Courts.

Supreme court will convene for the December term next Monday.

John A. Johanson, a native of Finland, and John Grace of Ireland, were yesterday admitted to citizenship by Judge Este.

J. A. Thompson, master, in the estate of John Henry Bruns, reports a total valuation of $12,991.40 and disbursements of $6,107.05.

An order has been granted in the probate court allowing the administrator to mortgage the real estate in the estate of John Lot Alani.

Maria Barette has petitioned the probate court for an order that trustee pay an allowance for her support from the estate of Manuel Antonio Barette, deceased.

Paul Neumann and Robertson & Wilder, the respective attorneys in the suits of Wong Chow vs. New Zealand Insurance Co., Hop Hing & Co. vs. North German Insurance Co., and the two suits of D. L. Akwal vs. Royal Insurance Co., have agreed to an arrangement that the cases may be tried in vacation of the regular term and juries are waived.

E. M. Boyd, late secretary of the First American Bank of Hawaii, has been appointed Washington correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle. Mr. Boyd represented the same paper very efficiently there during the last term.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near America, Duchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croup has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., general agents for Territory of Hawaii.

"The Star Spangled Banner."

Children, Photographs.

Perhaps the most trying part of the photographic operator's life is the handling of children, yet Miss Haskins with infinite skill seems to find no difficulty in the matter.

It is surprising the variety of poses the little ones are led into by her skillful handling, all so natural and delightful.

Miss Haskins has a style of her own, and her efforts are highly appreciated by those who are competent to judge.

King Bros. are to be congratulated on having secured her services in their new enterprise.

DIVORCE BUSINESS LIVELY.

Cases Disposed of Yesterday With Neatness and Dispatch.

The divorce court yesterday did a lively business for part of the day. Persons wanting divorces got them without much unnecessary delay and in one case where a divorce was once wanted but not so now that couple was also accommodated.

Antonio de Cruz Franc in his suit against Josepha Franc, succeeded in getting a hearing yesterday and a divorce. The plaintiff says her husband for two years has been guilty of extreme cruelty to her, calling her vile names and referring to her as a "prostitute." During last February it was stated that the woman was beaten and blood flowed from her mouth and nose from the effects and she was confined to her bed for fifteen days. For more than two years she charges him with intemperance and says he has failed and neglected to provide for Antonio and her child.

The divorce suit of Nina J. Flint against Harry W. Flint was yesterday dismissed by an order of the court. It is understood that Flint and his wife have fully reconciled their differences. In the same order is a dismissal of the contempt proceedings against Flint.

Carrie Kaal was yesterday granted a separation from Ernest K. Kaal on the ground of non-support. The custody of the child of the couple was awarded to the plaintiff and the defendant was ordered to pay $25 a month alimony.

The divorce matter of Maria Dos Santos vs. Jose De Abren was continued until next term of court as was also that of Fernandez vs. Fernandez.

Decree in Miner Case.

The decree in the Miner divorce case was filed yesterday. It contained the same facts already published and ordered that Dr. Miner pay all the costs to the amount of $85.00 and the stenographer's fees for transcribing the testimony which are fixed at $896.70.

Bold Attempted Robbery.

An amateur thief attempted to rob the jewelry store of Frank J. Krueger on Fort street Tuesday night. Some valuable goods had been exposed in the show window during the day and at night the curtains were drawn and the windows darkened. A thief smashed the valuable plate window at an early hour yesterday morning and must have been mighty disappointed when he found that the treasures had been removed and were safely resting in the safe within the store. The fellow fled. The crash was heard at Nolte's lunch room, but not at police headquarters. No arrest.

At the Orpheum.

The Orpheum is again dark this evening as far as theatricals are concerned, the Mormon church renting the house. Tomorrow night a complete change of program goes on, introducing both the new artists. The new arrivals have added to the value of the performance and the program is better than ever. Little Claire Fox made a big hit on Tuesday evening and will be a popular card for many nights to come. "Champagne and Oysters," a farce comedy which has been held over pending the arrival of Miss Simmers, goes on on Friday night under the direction of Conlon and Ryder, and with the full orchestra and changes from all the performers a good entertainment is in prospect.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., general agents for Territory of Hawaii.
